August 13, 2006

Baghdad (MND-B) [redacted] (b)(3), (b)(6)

Baghdad [redacted] (b)(3), (b)(6)

(BC0121) Saba Al Boor Local Police Station: A joint patrol was organized after an IP arrived at the station and reported he, along with another IP and a former IP, had just been taken prisoner, and he was able to escape. The joint patrol located the IPs body a half mile from the station. The IP had been shot in the head. Interviews done at the scene pointed toward the murder being done by the Mahdi militia, with the name of the Mahdi militia head person in the area mentioned by name.

The commander spoke of continued fuel shortages, sewer problems, generator problems, and badge issues; all of which have been identified and previously discussed. The commander also said the station is still not receiving detainee food from MOI as is supposed to be the case. The commander said he has notified his supervisor on many occasions of all these issues, but nothing has happened. While the Team was present the commander contacted his supervisor about these issues, and was told efforts would be made to have the aforementioned issues resolved.

The following stations conducted joint patrols, in some cases multiple patrols, with IPs. All reported reasonably good performance by the IPs involved.

CPATT IPLO DAILY SITREP

Al Faiha Police Station FFID (BE0012): An inspection of the Radio room found the current room is too small to house both a command center and radio room. (PTT will look at possible QRF funding to expand).

The station has a new generator capable of powering the entire station; however, the fuel tank was empty.

While the PTT Team was discussing the vehicle situation at this station, a male in civilian clothes drove up in a Chevy Lux pickup truck. The individual identified himself as an IP with an Iraqi Police identification card. When asked about driving the truck in civilian clothes, he stated that it was his vehicle because he signed for it and was the driver. He was informed by the PTT that it was not his personal vehicle, and that it belonged to the MOI. He was advised that the vehicle was not for personnel use, and if he was seen driving in civilian clothes again while not on duty, the MNF could impound the vehicle and not give it back.
