The command staff advised they did not believe the Irbil Police was going to reassign another member to work at the JCC. Also, it is believed that other representatives from the other agencies were going to be pulled and not replaced. The PTT explained to the command staff once again that it was very important that all agencies have a representative and that everything possible be done within their chain of command to try to get these agencies to replace the officers. The command staff advised there was nothing that could be done from their end because of the fact that these officers work for different agencies and are not really in their chain of command. The PTT asked if it would be possible to go to the Governor to get help. They advised that they were not really allowed to do that. Once again, the PTT will attempt to push these issues up the chain of command from our end and seek some kind of resolution.

PTT then traveled to a location about ten miles outside of town where the Oil Police have a substation. PTT met the IP at the station to evaluate the location for force protection and plan for future training. LTC [redacted] advised PTT that most of the IP have purchased their own weapons due to the fact that weapons were only issued to the first 40 Peshmerga. LTC [redacted] introduced PTT to a LT along with several other IP that worked at the station. LTC [redacted] stressed that their numbers of IP were not sufficient for the job. The LTC advised the PTT each group of workers must have an IP detail with them at all times. LTC [redacted] stated that force protection training for the IP would be good. LTC [redacted] stated that his station would work with PTT in any way needed.

Sulaymaniyah [redacted]

(TS0034) Dukan DHQ: PTT met with investigators from the Dukan district. PTT did a review of what we covered in yesterday's class, departmental policies and responding to a crime scene. The last portion of the day was spent discussing problems arising through the archaic present system of investigations and possible solutions for these problems.

(TS0010) Sulay Traffic HQ: PTT conducted the fifth and final day of the Advance Motorcycle Class. This day was dedicated towards the final exam. All students must complete the required course in 90 seconds. Course has an assortment of exercises which includes the Figure-eight, Clover Leaf, Key Hole and Slow speed maneuver. Five students completed the course, the other three will return at a later date.

(TS0008) Sulay PHQ: PTT continued the fifth and final week of the 40-day advanced accident investigations course today at the Sulaymaniyah Police Academy. This course is being conducted at the request of MG [redacted], to insure his police investigators have an understanding of accident investigation, as they have the duty under Iraqi Law to present the case to the Investigative Judges in fatality cases.

Today's lesson required the students to utilize all their new skills and training in this field to conduct various calculations, in order to determine all of the factors contributing to an accident. This included determining vehicles initial speeds, rates of acceleration, and/or deceleration, and relevant time studies. This was the last day of regular training; the remaining days will be for review and a written examination to evaluate the student's knowledge and understanding of the subject matter taught. The students who achieve a passing grade receiving a certificate of completion and the other students a certificate of attendance. The basis for the examination and the different certificates is to maintain the integrity of the police in this technical field. This is especially critical for the judges who will rely on the quality of these investigations in order make an appropriate ruling.

(No FFID) Sulaymaniyah House of Justice: PTT met with Chief Judge of the Sulaymaniyah Province today to set up a Police Rights Board for all law enforcement. The goal is to get the IP and Judges to act in conjunction regarding law enforcement. The IP at present are being punished for doing their job as far as self defense and other duties. Chief Judge [redacted] advised this board would be a benefit to all involved. He could not speak in detail today on this matter due to being very busy with other matters.

Dahuk (b)(3), (b)(6)

(MD0002) Dahuk PHQ: PTT visited PHQ and worked on completing the IPSFR for the station. PTT compiled all the IPSFR in the Dahuk region, and started entering them into the CF system.

(MD0643) Batil LPS: PTT visited Batil LPS to meet with the station commander. The station commander advised that, in addition to running 24 hour patrols over an area encompassing about 80 villages, this station is operating a 24 hour vehicle checkpoint on a major road in the area. The commander is very pleased with the radio coverage they now have. They have been issued six portable radios and this enables them to have radios available for the patrol checkpoint and the shift supervisor as well as the IP at the station. The commander advised the radio capability is very good uniformly throughout his area. The station is a relatively low crime area and while the PTT was present they were investigating an accidental shooting that resulted in death. The IP investigators appeared to leave nothing to chance and were very thorough in forwarding the involved evidence to Dahuk PHQ to be forwarded on to the laboratory in Irbil.

The station has no jail therefore; prisoners are transported to the jail at Dahuk PHQ if they are required to be held longer than 24 hours. The station commander would like to see his manpower raised from its current 25 IP to 33. He advised this would enable him to do a more equitable shift rotation since he is operating a 24 hour checkpoint in addition to patrols and station duty. The station receives only 150,000 dinar per month and no additional support is received from the Mayor..

The station commander feels that his DHQ and PHQ do a relatively good job in supplying the station. Since the PTT last visited and discussed the fact that this station was not being supplied any food, this has been corrected and has been a very big help to the men assigned there. The only logistical issues the commander has is that he would like more computers and printers and he needs new traffic cones for his checkpoint. The commander is firmly behind the PTT plans to train local trainers at the DHQ and station levels and is actually interested in participating himself. In ending, training issues were discussed and the commander would like such skills classes as handcuffing.
