Claim 08-2SCR-0187R

Dear Claimant:

You have submitted a claim seeking compensation for your loss. I have thoroughly reviewed your claim pursuant to the Foreign Claims Act (FCA), Title 10, United States Code §2734, Army Regulation 27-20, and Department of the Army Pamphlet 27-162 Claims Procedures. Allow me to express my sympathy for your loss, however, in accordance with the cited references and the investigation into your claims, I find that your claim is not compensable. After an exhaustive search of records of the date in question, your claim was denied for the following reason:

- a. There is not enough evidence to prove your claim.
- b. The evidence does not show that United States Forces caused the damage.
- c. The evidence shows that the damage was caused during combat.
- d. The evidence shows that the damage was caused by your own negligence or wrongdoing.
- e. Other: _____

If you are dissatisfied by this action, you may request reconsideration of the decision in accordance with AR 27-20. Any such request must be forwarded to this office for Foreign Claims Commission consideration. While there is no prescribed format for such a request, it must describe the legal and/or factual basis for relief. Any request for reconsideration should be made in writing within 30 days of your receipt of this letter.

Sub. Reconsideration

In before I submitted arequest of the comensation about killing my husband, victim( (b)(6) by the CF's troops in AlKhalis-ALDojama village, but refused according your decision (b)(2)High its made harm to my rights, so I want to explain the following:

1. My husband was one of (b)(6) members in (b)(6) village whø's supported the CF's troops to fight the terrorisim groups at that time.
2. My husband did'nt have any aggression action toward the CF, but the CF killed him when they shoot fires with wrong way toward village's people.
3. All witnesses confirmed that your respect forces killed with wrongway my husband, when the CF shoot the fires toward the civilians, killed & injured number of them.

For this reasons I hope from your justice to reconsider my requ& help me with 5000 $, Iam apoor woman with under ages children.

Dear Claimant:

Allow me to express my sympathy for your loss, however, in accordance with the cited references and the investigation into your claims, I find that your claim is not compensable. After an exhaustive search of records of the date in question, your claim was denied for the following reason: there is insufficient evidence that Coalition Forces caused the death of your husband.

If you are dissatisfied by this action, you may request reconsideration of the decision in accordance with AR 27-20. Any such request must be forwarded to this office for Foreign Claims Commission consideration. While there is no prescribed format for such a request, it must describe the legal and/or factual basis for relief.
