

LINDA NORGVROVE – INTELLIGENCE SUMMARY (1 of 3)

TF (b)(1)1.4c, (b)(1)1.4d, (b)(1)1.4e, (b)(2)High Assessment:
 Ms Norgrove and companions likely taken into Badal or Dewagal Valley. Expect Linda will be separated from the Afghan companions.

TF (b)(1)1.4c, (b)(1)1.4d, (b)(1)1.4e, (b)(2)High Assessment:
 Ms Norgrove remains in Dewagal valley under Maulawi Basir's control possibly in Spedar village. Unlikely she was moved to the Pech District due to terrain and time-distance. Additionally, (b)(1)1.4(c) traffic reports cuts discussing "American" in Dewagal.

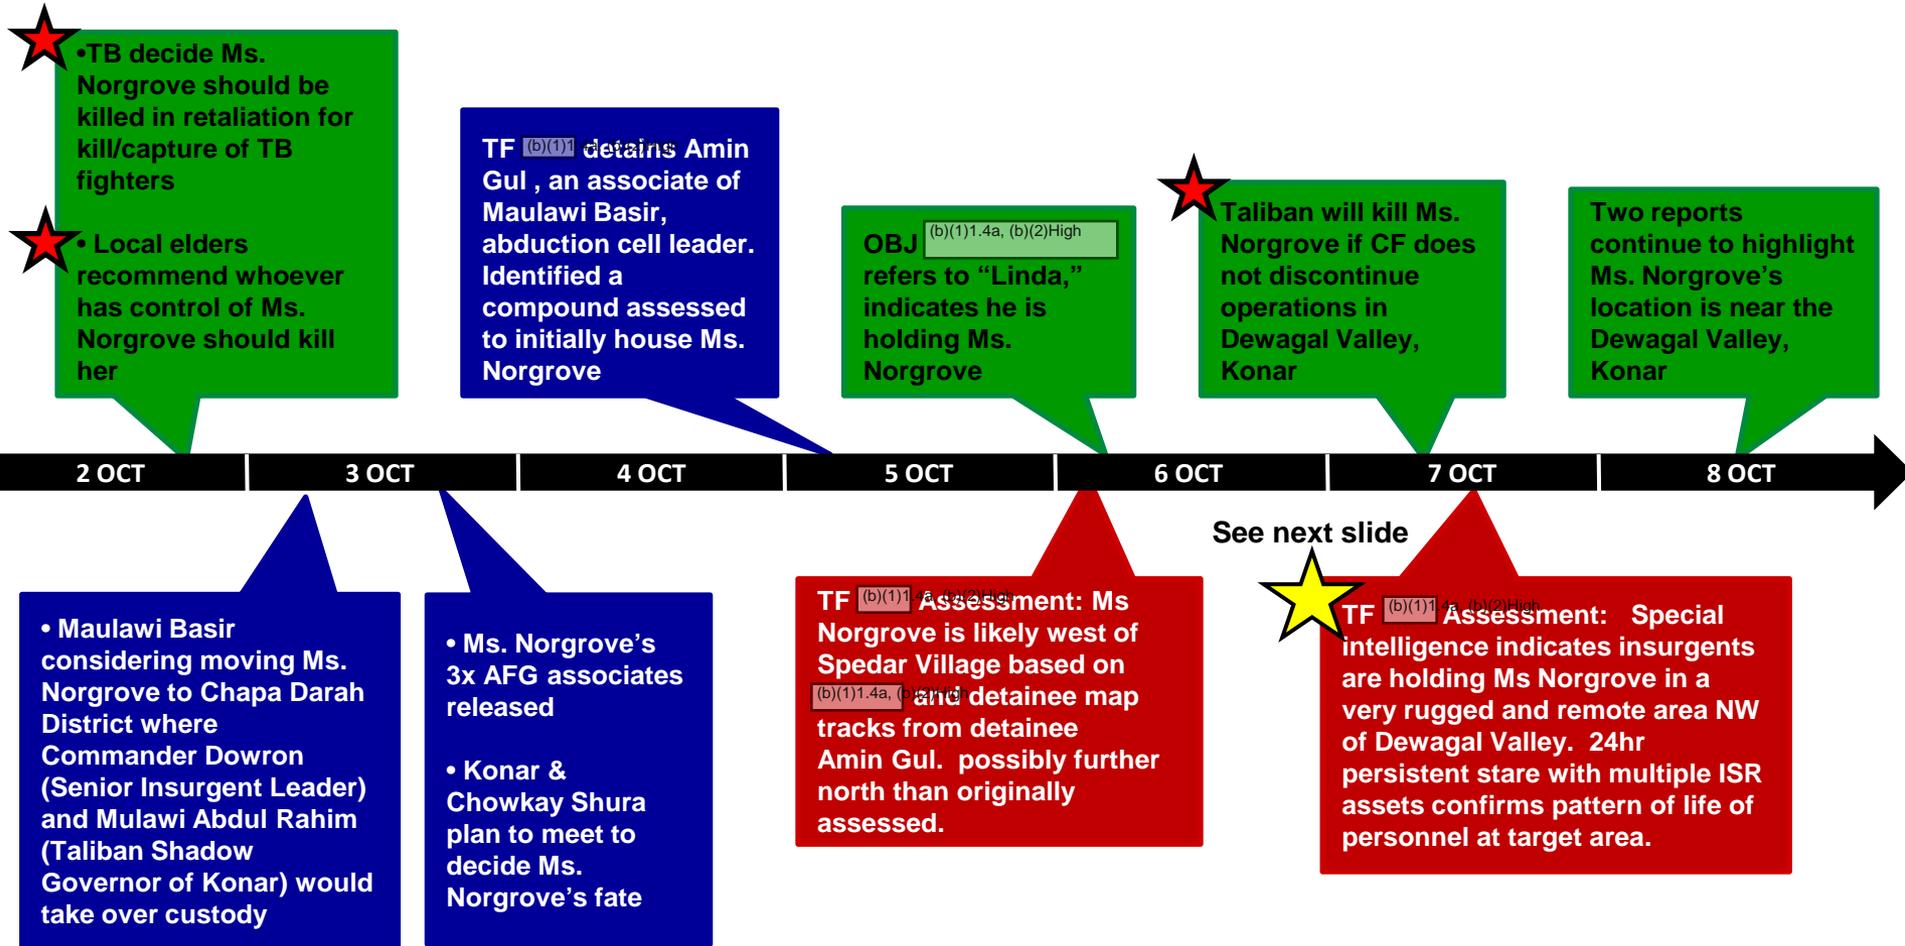

TF (b)(1)1.4c, (b)(1)1.4d, (b)(1)1.4e, (b)(2)High Assessment:
 Ms Norgrove is likely between Chalas and Spedar villages based on volume of (b)(1)1.4c and (b)(1)1.4c reporting.

TF (b)(1)1.4c, (b)(1)1.4d, (b)(1)1.4e, (b)(2)High Assessment:
 Ms. Norgrove remains near Spedar or Chalas villages due to multiple INT corroboration. (b)(1)1.4c (b)(1)1.4c puts her in the Korengal valley.

TF (b)(1)1.4c, (b)(1)1.4d, (b)(1)1.4e, (b)(2)High Assessment:
 Ms Norgrove is close to Spedar or Chalas.

Document Approved for Release by U.S. Central Command. See Norgrove Investigation.

LINDA NORGROVE – INTELLIGENCE SUMMARY (2 of 3)

LINDA NORGROVE – INTELLIGENCE SUMMARY (3 of 3)

SPECIAL INTELLIGENCE ATTAINED ON OCTOBER 7TH, 2010, INDICATED LINDA NORGROVE LIKELY AT A RUGGED LOCATION (42S XD 59068 50379)

07 OCT 10: Special Intelligence reveals insight into the captors motives and considerations:

- Captor states they have no intention of releasing her and are willing to hold her for years
- Taliban leadership expressed desire to take control of her, but captors wouldn't give her up because she is not an infidel, but a Muslim
- Captor wanted to get his own detainees released using her to exchange
- ★ Captor encouraged to kill Ms. Norgrove by locals and tribe. They site historical example of a Russian hostage that was killed, which resulted in them leaving the valley.
- ★ Captor states that there are 21 of them prepared to do a suicide attack when they go down.