

PUBLIC SHELTERS

A public shelter should keep you safe, but not in luxury. You cannot bring pets, guns or alcohol. No smoking inside. Shelters usually do not provide beds or cots, so you will sleep on the floor. It's up to you to bring bedding. You will be fed at the shelter, but it will be simple fare and may be cold food. Boredom could become a problem, so have books, cards and quiet games for yourself and children. If you bring a battery-powered CD player, be sure to bring headphones out of courtesy to others. Bring clothes and toiletries to last at least three days. It will be crowded, 10 sq ft per person.
